Serving the area since 1953, Engle's Frame and Body Service was purchased by new owner, Joe Stoudt in 2006. The body shop still provides the quality service that Engle's Frame and Body Service is known for.

Complete restorations, frame straightening, minor or major repairs, free estimates, PA state inspections and complete paint repair are a few of the services offered by the shop. In addition to these services, body and mechanical repairs are now being offered as well.
