

CHRISTINE FLOMERFELT STATE FARM INSURANCE AGENCY, INC.

Christine Flomerfelt Insurance Agency, Inc. carries an extensive assortment of State Farm products to meet all your insurance and financial needs. Because the agency is part of the local community, they understand the community's needs and offer all lines of insurance, auto, home, health, business plus financial services, retirement, mutual funds and company savings. Life insurance, a product State Farm has sold for the last 80 years, is also available. State Farm is currently celebrating their 80th year in business.

In addition to insurance products, State Farm also has a bank. Through State Farm Bank, Christine Flomerfelt Insurance Agency, Inc. offers loans, checking, savings, CD's and credit cards. Christine and her staff can also help you with questions regarding rolling over a 401K, retirement and preparing for your children's education.

As a State Farm Agency, they have one of the best consumer retention rates. State Farm is financially sound and is able to offer discounts and affordable rates.

Christine Flomerfelt Insurance Agency is easily accessible, whether you want to walk-in, mail-in or click-in. The staff is comprised of an office manager, Nancy, three full time licensed sales representatives, Heather, Bobbi, Therese and Kathy, who is the contact sales representative, each of whom offers a professional, personal and thorough approach to finding the best mix of coverages for you and your family. The staff is there for you to help you recover from the unexpected and to realize your dreams of the future.

The Christine Flomerfelt Insurance Agency is proud to be celebrating 15 years in the Akron Community. They are not only a part of the community, but part of your family. The agency evolves as you do through the stages of your life.
