

GARDNER & STEVENS, P.C.

Gardner & Stevens is a full service general practice law firm which prides itself in successfully providing clients with personal, prompt and experienced service on a wide variety of legal issues. With over 30 years of combined attorney experience inside and outside the courtroom, Gardner & Stevens is committed to providing "experienced professional representation close to home."

The firm has long been known throughout northern Lancaster County for providing its clients with personal attention that only a small law firm can offer, while still providing aggressive representation in divorce, custody, support and other areas of law. Gardner & Stevens is experienced in personal injury and wrongful death cases and is a member of the prestigious Million Dollar Advocates' Forum, for obtaining verdicts, awards or settlements of $1 million or more.

Gardner & Stevens works extensively in many other areas of the law, including wills and estates, business formation, criminal defense, traffic violations, civil litigation and general practice. There is no need to travel outside northern Lancaster County to obtain quality legal representation. Their knowledgeable attorneys and staff are able to meet all of your legal needs.

Gardner & Stevens is located at 109 West Main Street, Ephrata. They can be reached at 717-733-3330 or 717-626-7728. Visit them on the web at www.gardnerstevens.com.

Shown in the photo (left to right): Seated: Dawn Kreiter and Tara Wood. Standing: John Stevens, Denise Martin and Kurt Gardner.