

Stephen R. Gibble and Jansen M. Honberger, Attorneys at Law

GIBBLE AND HONBERGER, P.C. ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Gibble and Honberger, P.C., Attorneys at Law, conveniently located at 126 E. Main Street, Lititz, are "Your Family's Attorneys."

They are a general practice law firm which means they can help you with divorce, custody, support, estate planning, estate administration, business formation, partnership formation and other services. Their client base is balanced with many individuals in need of personalized services. Mr. Stephen R. Gibble, who has been practicing since 1982, specializes in estate planning and administration and Mr. Jansen Honberger, who has been practicing since 2002, specializes in all aspects of family law.

Mr. Gibble and Mr. Honberger bring a combined 35 years of various experience to the firm. Both are very active in the local community. Mr. Gibble is a past president and current member of the Lititz Rotary Club, has served as the President of the Lancaster County Council of Churches, was the Lancaster County Republican Party chairman from 1992 to 1994, and ran as the endorsed candidate from Lancaster County for U.S. Congress in 1996. Mr. Gibble currently serves as a trustee of the Anne Brossman Sweigart Charitable Foundation and remains active in many other community organizations. Mr. Honberger is a past president and current member of the Ephrata Rotary Club, as well as a sitting member of both the Ephrata Recreation Center and Ephrata Area Social Services Board of Directors.

Not only are they available for individual services, Gibble and Honberger, P.C. represent several area churches and many area businesses, small and large. Both Mr. Gibble and Mr. Honberger enjoy serving the Ephrata and Lititz communities, whether on an individual basis or in a business situation.

Gibble and Honberger, P.C. was started in November of 2005 by Mr. Gibble and Mr. Honberger, both of whom had previously worked together with another firm. Over the last four years, the office staff has increased two fold and presently the firm is outgrowing its building! Technology has allowed the office to become very efficient in representing their client's needs.

Members of the Gibble and Honberger, P.C. staff, Betsy Neuer, Barbara Erin-Wagner, Christine Leonard, Lori Snyder, Patricia Maurer and Pamela Bowman have a strong sense of family. The employees and attorney's dedication to the business and the close familial working relationships between themselves and the clients, have added to the success of the firm.

If you are in need of personalized service from a law firm that cares about you, please call Gibble and Honberger, P.C. at 717-626-7778 to schedule an appointment. Office hours are Monday - Friday, 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.