

ANDERSON PHARMACY

JOHN M.

"Let us be your family pharmacy." That's the motto of Anderson Pharmacy, now celebrating 18 years of business success. Anderson Pharmacy provides friendly, fast and convenient prescription service. A convenient location, ample parking, handicap accessibility and competitive pricing make Anderson Pharmacy a great place to take care of your shopping needs.

John M. Anderson had worked with his father for over twenty years at Anderson Pharmacy in Denver before opening his own pharmacy in 1992. When Earl Weaver of Weaver Markets saw the need for a pharmacy at his Adamstown location, Anderson Pharmacy was chosen to meet the area's health needs.

Check out the variety of health and beauty products, gift items and other services available at Anderson Pharmacy: A full line of brand names like Windmill, Sundown, Herb-Science and Nature's Bounty vitamins, plus cough and cold medicines; beauty products, complete line of Jordanna cosmetics. Featuring Bel-Horn orthopedics and J&J first aid supplies. Also Russell Stover candies, Russ gifts, stationery products, Ambassador greeting cards by Hallmark.

Special orders are available upon request. Call ahead or have your prescription filled while you shop. Health benefit cards electronically processed. CVS/Caremark accepted.

Anderson Pharmacy is located in the Weaver Markets store at Routes 272 and 897 in Adamstown. Hours are Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m.-9:00 p.m. and Saturday 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Phone 717-484-2649.

L-R: Janelle Kerr (technician), John Anderson (owner), Tom Smith (pharmacist), Kim Howe (technician)