Some highlights are theme baskets at 10:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., men's auction at 11:15 a.m. and special features at 12:00 noon. Class projects will be sold at 2:15 p.m. This year their special features include sporting events, special meals, exciting trips and much more.

LAMS has been celebrating 40 years of education all year long. They will end that celebration at the auction. To commemorate each decade, they are selling four special items. Starting at 11:00 a.m. they will auction off an Elk Hunt in Montana, which is being donated by Rawhide Guide Service. At 12:00 noon a golf cart will be sold; this item will be donated back to the school to use for multiple activities. At 1:00 p.m. an 8x8 garden shed will be sold; this item is being built by Titus Zimmerman and Zimtech Exteriors. Finally at 2:00 p.m. they will sell a trip for a family of four, including passes to the Creation Museum, The Ark Experience and a two night stay at a hotel near the Cincinnati River Walk.
