New Holland area children were amazed as Marcy Klutchka delivered “Giggle Magic” at the Elanco Library recently. Giggle Magic shows slated for this year’s Summer Reading Program will include “Silly Safari,” “Farmyard Fun” and “Yum Yum Veggies.” These shows will captivate young audiences and within seconds the children are giggling, engaged and off on a journey comprised of age-appropriate magic, puppets and slapstick comedy. Then it is time to get up and move to a Kidz-Rock Dance Party. Giggle + Magic = Awesome Entertainment. Events run now through Tuesday, August 8. Shown are children thoroughly enjoying being involved in the show.
