

FAMILIES UNITED NETWORK, INC.

Families United Network, Inc. began operating on July 1, 1996 as a private foster care provider. The agency is a Pennsylvania non-profit corporation licensed by the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services as a voluntary child welfare agency. The company began by servicing a small number of children from several counties spread across the state of Pennsylvania. Initially the agency provided foster care services in the central, western, and north central part of the state.

Today, Families United Network, Inc. provides care to over 500 children annually through foster care, adoption and residential services. There are offices and residential facilities throughout Pennsylvania. New programs are considered and developed regularly in order to strengthen their continuum of services to help children and families.

Families United Network, Inc. is dedicated to strengthening families by providing children and youth with a safe, nurturing, community environment through a continuum of services, which focus on reunification or permanency. They derive the most satisfaction in their business from seeing children achieve permanency within a family and seeing them succeed.

With professional and experienced staff, Families United Network, Inc. is committed to ensure quality service and programming that is offered to their clients and their families. In an effort to continually monitor and improve their services, they utilize a variety of approaches to meet best practices and quality standards. They are accredited through COA (Council of Accreditation) and are a member of PCCYFS (Pennsylvania Council of Children, Youth and Family Services).

Families United Network, Inc. is located at 412 South Angle Street, Mount Joy, PA 17552. Their phone number is 717-492-9338 and their website is www.families4kids.org. Hours of operation are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

