

Unruh Insurance Agency was established in 1977 by Robert D. Unruh. In 1986, the agency expanded to include his two sons, Curt and Kent, the current owners. Celebrating its 40th anniversary, Unruh includes locations in Denver and East Earl and serves a client base of more than 7,000 individuals and businesses. Recently the third generation, Curt's son and daughter, joined the business. All live within the local communities and are strong supporters of the schools and organizations that make Lancaster County a special place to live and work.

The agency proudly represents Erie Insurance Group, Reamstown Mutual, Progressive, Foremost, Juniata Mutual, Philadelphia Contributionship and more. Unruh's team is dedicated to providing the best coverage and staffs the agency with caring, knowledgeable professionals who help make shopping for insurance a positive experience.
