

ENCK'S GUN BARN

Looking for a local gun shop that carries a large variety of firearms and ammunition? Wondering where you can learn the safe and proper way to handle a firearm? Maybe you are looking for a warm place to improve your skills? If you answered yes to any of these questions, look no further than Pennsylvania's premier gun shop, Enck's Gun Barn.

Enck's Gun Barn is owned and operated by Bob and Fran Enck and managed by Mike Ebersole. After the couple faced forced retirement at an early age, they started the gun shop in 1993 in a small two car garage. In 2016, the business was moved to its current location, 17 East Main Avenue, Myerstown, which is located east of Lebanon, just off 422.

Customers find a courteous and friendly environment and fair pricing when they come to Enck's Gun Barn. They carry a large variety of firearms including new and used handguns, long guns (rifles and shotguns), cowboy shooting guns and accessories. STI, Ruger, Stoeger, Uberti, S&W, Les Baer and Ed Brown are a few of the brands featured.

They also offer a variety of safety and instruction classes led by certified NRA instructors, Steve Weir and Andy McCauley. Range officers assist range customers in any of their 10 shooting lanes, two of which are handicapped lanes. The lanes are clean, well lit, heated and most importantly, safe. Enck's Gun Barn is a premier member of the National Shooting Sports Foundation. Bob and Fran are members of SASS (Single Action Shooting Society).

Enck's Gun Barn also has a full service gunsmith area including blueing and cerakote services. Gunsmiths are Wyatt Ebersole, Ron Bergum and gunsmith apprentice Craig Henderson. Wyatt is a graduate of Pennsylvania Gunsmith College. All employees and owners are members of the NRA.

Enck's Gun Barn hours are Sunday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday and Saturday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Please visit the website at www.encksgunbarn.com. Their phone number is 717-628-5084.

