

Edward Jones is an investment firm that believes your financial goals deserve a face-to-face conversation. Allen Wessel, CFP® Financial Advisor believes in the importance of personal service for the individual investor.

Allen's office is located at 201 East Main Street, New Holland, in the historic landmark, Kauffman Hardware Building. He is proud to be celebrating 22 years in a town where you can still do business the old fashioned way - in person.

Allen will help you make sense of the investment options available these days. At Edward Jones, they listen to your needs and goals and offer a personal strategy/financial strategy with language that you understand. Edward Jones can help you with strategic ideas to help build your portfolio today for a more prepared tomorrow.

A financial advisor can help you prepare for the future, please call Allen Wessel, CFP® Financial Advisor of Edward Jones.
