

COCALICO BUILDERS, LTD

Bringing your dreams to life.

Cocalico Builders, LTD has been a growing business under the hands of Dwight Graybill since 2004. Dwight, being a native to the Lancaster County area and growing up in the small town of Stevens, wanted to find a way to give back to the community. Dwight and Cocalico Builders provide unique and custom projects from the kitchen to the bathroom to your outdoor entertaining spaces.

Dwight's goal has always been to provide unique projects to his customers. He pours his energy and creativity into your home by designing top notch spaces with intricate detail and high quality workmanship. Dwight and his business have been featured in Lancaster County Magazine on numerous occasions for the outstanding work he's provided for the community.

One of the reasons Cocalico Builders stands out from other companies is not only because of their creativity in their projects, but also their enjoyment of repurposing material to make old things new again. Dwight and project manager, Ben Graybill, enjoy when they come up with an idea to make a project unique to the customers and seeing the smile on their faces when the job is complete.

Cocalico Builders brings pride and passion to every project they undertake. With a professional team of designers, project managers and tradespeople, you can be assured that you will be, "Bringing your dreams to life."
