

LATANISHEN CHIROPRACTIC

New for 2024: Latanishen Chiropractic now offers Myofascial Acoustic Compression Therapy – a modern technology that uses sound energy pulses known as “acoustic waves” to treat different painful conditions of the musculoskeletal system, including chronic tendinopathy and plantar fasciitis.

MyACT is also helpful for increased circulation, pain relief, reduction of scar tissue and promotion of tissue healing and regeneration. Treatments are quick and have long-lasting effects.

Latanishen Chiropractic also offers excellent chiropractic and naturopathic care, rehabilitation therapy and soft tissue therapy in addition to First Line Therapy, a specialized therapeutic lifestyle-change program. The FLT system targets the underlying causes of chronic illnesses by incorporating sensible eating plans, nutritional supplementation, exercise programs and stress management.

Dr. Andrew Latanishen has been serving the local community since 1988 and has been in his present location at Schaum's Corner, 4233 Oregon Pike in Ephrata, since 1997.

Dr. Latanishen's goal for patients is to allow them to return to what they enjoy doing in their lives instead of being restricted by pain and weakness.

Michael Reece, a naturopathic doctor, also joins the team. He specializes in integrative oncology treatment, clinical nutrition and metabolic detoxification.
